

Programme for the Australian Homœopathic Medicine Conference 2012

FRIDAY October 12th

3-5 pm registration in the Vestibule
 5.30 -7.30 pm cocktails & food in River Room; branch welcome to delegates

SATURDAY October 13th

8 - 8.45 registration in the Vestibule
 8.45 - 9.00 opening
 9 - 10.20 Jeremy Sherr for a double plenary session: Noble Gases – an introduction

 Morning tea

	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Raffles Room
10.40 – 11.20	Shilpa Bhouraskar Integrative Homœopathy – its role in modern homœopathic practice	Gwyneth Evans Patient and Practitioner: The Homœopathic Odyssey	Jane Faulkner & Jane Saunders Crossing the Divide- a journey from study into practice
11.25– 12.05	Fran Sheffield Forensic Homœopathy	David Levy The face of homœopathic clinical reasoning and decision making: the lived experiences of Australian homœopaths	Anne MacFarlane Homœopathic Research Challenges in the 21st Century Cindy Lane Exploring the current healthcare choices made for young children in south east Melbourne
12.10 – 12.50	Yudith Enya Scholte A Lachesis pain in the neck as expressed through Sandplay Therapy	Alastair Gray Hahnemann's Legacy: the 200 year journey of homœopathic education	Penny Barron Aurum Project: a retrospective case series analysis on the treatment of glue ear Carli Osborne Australian Homœopaths' Experiences of Vaccinosis and its Treatment in Modern Day Practice: A Qualitative Exploratory Survey Sarah Valentini The views of homœopathy and reasons for referral: a survey of a cohort of final year clinic students at ECNH, Melbourne

 Lunch

	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Raffles Room
1.35 – 2.15	Peter Tumminello Turquoise – the colour and the power	Christine Pope Clinical Nutrition - a key part of the journey back to health	w' shop: Grant Bentley Homœopathic Facial Analysis (HFA) – the new face of Homœopathy
2.20 – 3.00	Ann Manning There is Something There! Stable Water Clusters – evidence of "substance" in homœopathic preparations	Henry Stephenson Listening to Animals	w' shop: Grant Bentley continued

 Afternoon tea

3.20 – 4.00 Dr. Linda Hanson Climate change and Homœopathy: scientific or natural; environmental or psychiatric; genetic or energetic?
 4.05 – 4.45 Jeremy Sherr Homœopathy in Africa: stalking a wild virus
 4.45 – 5.00 closing

SUNDAY October 14th

9.00 – 9.40 Patricia Hatherly Journey towards a Simillimum and how to spot a wolf along the way
 9.45 – 10.20 Greg Cope The Living Global Reference ... a future for homœopathic information

Morning tea

10.40 – 12.05 Dr. Jurgen Schulte for a double plenary session: Advances of Homœopathy in Science
 12.10 – 12.50 Dr. Anita Salunkhe Mind & Miasms: the key to understanding the human constitution

Lunch

	Ballroom 1	Ballroom 2	Raffles Room1	Raffles Room 2
1.35 – 2.15	w'shop: Joe Rozencwajg Homeopathy through the Chinese Looking Glass: Homeosiniatry Revisited.	Shenaz Morkas The homœopathic management of Asthma	Dr. Isaac Golden Research Methodology in Homœopathy, Exemplified by the Latest Cuban Research	Dr. Cath Berry The Art of Healing: a personal perspective
2.20 – 3.00	w'shop: Joe Rozencwajg Continued	Liz Lalor PTSD: Spongia an epic journey out of persecution from the past	Dr. Isaac Golden Homœoprophylaxis & Research – Turning Theory into Practice	Ben Gadd The homœopathic toolbox: good enough for 2012 and beyond?

Afternoon tea

3.20 – 4.00 Jeremy Sherr: Jaw dropping analysis of old remedies
 4.05 – 4.45 Debate: Adherence To The Past Makes Moving Forward Possible
 4.45 – 5.00 closing

